Mrs. Thos. T. Saffell

My dear niece, Edna

Jan

I wish to assure most positively that it was a pleasure for Thos. Uncle Dick to record his wife all the information I gave her it was no trouble at all as I have the most of it stored in my brain and the flow of the pen being not as rapid as memory the close of my letters usually indicate the same. That I am in a hurry to keep up. I don't quite well did send you a Booklet of the Consecration of Holy Trinity Church this place if not I'd like for you to possess it & I'd like to know how all the work of Mr. Saffell find I have given a memorial altar cross to the church here since the time

Made by Goddard of City. The Inscript-tion upon it is To the Honor of God and in Memory of John Trapehell whose forced death at the stake for the defense of the Roman Dogmell of Transubstan-tiation at Bedford in Avon with shire England. The blood of the Martyr is the seed of the Church 1578.
This may be told from a letter my Great Grandfather or John de who is now the one Mr. Cope speaks of John Tomber a brother John Shi all a delightful subject to me. I wonder what Ben Trapehell has done of the Traps-well place with the coat of arms I'd like to know if it is the one picked up in England. There is at Salisbury Ga a Firm Trapehell Mitchell & Co Ladies Ready to wear Goods Gents & Boys Furnishing & Dry Goods Notions & turb him informant I let you know through
